PROFILE

Malene Schlage Schultz Pedersen primarily focuses on private law, including family and succession law, as well as criminal law. She is dedicated to assisting her clients through sensitive legal matters such as divorce, estate administration, marriage contracts, wills, and durable power of attorney. Malene is known for her empathetic approach, thorough guidance, and ability to ensure fair solutions. Her goals are to ensure her clients' well-being and protect their rights, while also striving to make the legal process as understandable as possible.

Furthermore, Malene is a board member of Aarhus Legal Aid, a self-owned institution under the state that provides legal advice. Among other responsibilities, she has drafted rules of procedure, grant applications, annual reports, and responses to consultations.
